

Florence Reagle

Director – 2009-2010

Florence Reagle recently employed as a Branch Manager of Founders Title Agency, a national title company affiliate, overseeing settlement and title related services for the Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia and the District of Columbia region. She was previously Vice President of a local settlement agency. Florence's professional career spans twenty-five years and has afforded the opportunity to work with several nationally recognized title agencies, settlement companies and law firms. The opportunity to manage the real estate division of a law firm in 1985 served as the catalyst that introduced her to the real estate and title industry.

Florence has enjoyed rich diversity in her leadership background. Although her focus has always remained with the title industry, she has also had the opportunity to work with the Virginia General Assembly as a legislative assistant to two Richmond attorneys and to coordinate the successful campaign of a Richmond attorney to become President of the American Bar Association.

Florence is a member of the Virginia, Maryland and American Land Title Associations, and an Affiliate Member of the Fairfax Bar Association. She has devoted numerous hours as an active member of VLTA, serving on the Legislative Committee and most recently as Board liaison to the Membership Committee. Florence has also joined ALTA members at the Federal Conference to bring the title industry's concerns before our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Florence is currently attending classes to complete a program of studies offered locally by the University of Virginia. She is a licensed Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia title agent, a licensed Virginia Realtor and a member of the Paralegal section of the Fairfax Bar Association.

Florence enjoys all water sports, horseback riding, very amateur golf, spending time with her family and long walks with her grand-dogs. Florence takes extreme pride in her two sons, daughter-in-law and husband of nineteen years, all of whom have garnered wonderful personal accomplishments, and provide their unconditional support, encouragement and senses of humor.
